1. Introduction

- 1.1 The purpose of this document is to outline the Scottish Youth Football Association (SYFA) Disciplinary Procedures.
- 1.2 The following Disciplinary Procedures and rules shall apply to all football that is played under the jurisdiction of SYFA.
- 1.3 The disciplinary procedures will apply to:
- Misconduct reported by match officials
 - Protests and Complaints submitted by a team or league official
 - Cases of misconduct not reported by match officials
 - Incidents or acts which may be considered liable to bring the SYFA into disrepute
- 1.4 All officials and players shall co-operate with any SYFA or member league's investigation in respect of any alleged breaches of SYFA rules or procedures. They shall provide information to SYFA or the member league within the timeframes provided. Failure by a party to respond to such requests may result in that party being placed under precautionary suspension until a response has been provided.
- 1.5 The principles of natural justice shall apply to disciplinary committee procedures.
- 1.6 All leagues must keep records of misconduct for six months after the conclusion of the season.
- 1.7 The following principles will be applied in relation to the penalties imposed for misconduct at matches:
- 1.7.1 Match suspensions cover all competitive matches played by the club or team, but do not include trial matches, friendly matches, regional or national trial matches or schools' football.
- 1.7.2 A match that is abandoned and/or unfulfilled matches or postponed matches do not count as a completed match in terms of a player serving a suspension.
- 1.8 Any individual, player, official, club, team, league or association reported to the SYFA for an alleged breach of the disciplinary rules shall be referred to as the 'Alleged Party in Breach'.

2. Reporting of Offences by Match Officials

2.1 Cautionable Offences – Players

- 2.1.1 Match official(s) will administer cautions in accordance with the Laws of the Game. International Football Association Board | Laws of the Game | IFAB \(theifab.com\)
- 2.1.2 Match officials will submit report forms to the appropriate secretary stating details of the offence. Such report forms will be submitted as soon as possible following the match (but no later than three days) and must be emailed. Each submission must contain the match official's ID number.
- 2.1.3 Cautions will be noted by the league secretary, and a list of cautions can be requested. You may not dispute a caution.

2.2 Sending-off Offences: Fixed Penalty Automatic Suspensions (FPAS)

- 2.2.1 Match officials will administer sending-offs in accordance with the Laws of the Game.
- 2.2.2 Match officials will submit report forms to the appropriate league secretary, who will administer the appropriate action. Such report forms will be submitted as soon as possible following the match (but no later than three days) and must be emailed to the relevant league secretary. Each submission must contain the match official's ID number.
- 2.2.3 The League Disciplinary Committee will send an FPAS notification to the team secretary via email.
- 2.2.4 Where a player receives an FPAS, the player serves the suspension with immediate effect. FPAS will apply to their team's next competitive match. For the avoidance of doubt, an FPAS means an automatic suspension applies immediately and is not dependent on confirmation from the Disciplinary Committee.
- 2.2.5 Any player issued with an FPAS will result in their team being fined £20.00
- 2.2.6 Once a player has been ordered off and is subject to an FPAS, he cannot be released from his registration for the team until his FPAS is served.

2.3 Serving of FPAS - Players

- 2.3.1 Any FPAS or part thereof, which remains outstanding at the end of a season, must be served at the commencement of the following season.
- 2.3.2 For the avoidance of doubt, FPAS apply immediately and are not dependent on confirmation from the SYFA or league association.
- 2.3.3 For a player to serve a match suspension, they must be registered with a member team, entered on their match team lines, and noted as serving a suspension. For fixtures on COMET, the player cannot be added to a team line as suspensions are entered automatically.

2.4 Cautionable Offences – Officials

- 2.4.1 Match officials will administer cautions in accordance with the Laws of the Game.
- 2.4.2 Match officials will submit report forms to the appropriate secretary stating details of the offence. Such report forms will be submitted as soon as possible (but no later than 3 days) following the match and must be emailed. Each submission must contain the match official's ID number.
- 2.4.3 Cautions will be noted by the League Secretary and a list of cautions can be requested. A caution cannot be disputed.

2.5 Sending-Off Offences – Officials

- 2.5.3 The League Disciplinary Committee will send notification to the team manager/secretary via email.
- 2.5.4 Where an official receives a fixed penalty, the official serves the suspension with immediate effect. Fixed penalty suspensions will apply to their team's next competitive match. For the avoidance of doubt, a fixed penalty means automatic suspension applies immediately and is not dependent on confirmation from the disciplinary committee.
- 2.5.5 Any official issued with an FPAS will result in their team being fined £60.00
- 2.5.6 Once an official has been ordered off and is subject to a FPAS, he cannot be released from his registration for the team until his FPAS is served.
- 2.5.7 Any FPAS, or part thereof, which remains outstanding at the end of the season must be served at the commencement of the following season.

2.6.2 The League will issue a notice of Excessive Misconduct to the club, official, or player.

2.6.3 The Disciplinary Committee may, where they consider the excessive misconduct to be at the lower end of the sanction scale, issue a fixed penalty suspension.

2.6.4 The Disciplinary Committee may cite a player/official to a disciplinary meeting and may impose a dated suspension for EM offences. Dated suspensions apply to ALL football.

2.6.5 The Disciplinary Committee should consider any FPAS when determining a further suspension.

It is the responsibility of the club to pass information to the young person and their parent or carer.
- 4.14 A Committee's decision may only be challenged by an appeal set out in the Appeals Procedure. The decision shall be the full, final, and complete decision of the case(s).
- 4.15 If a Disciplinary receives a report or complaint that they deem may cause harm or the risk of harm to young people the disciplinary committee of the League or Region can immediately temporary suspend an official and/or team by notification to both the official and their club through email and then can apply within 48 hours to SYFA for confirmation of the Precautionary Suspension to be applied to an individual. To get confirmation of a precautionary suspension, you must email syfa@scottish-football.com clearly stating the reasons for the application of a Precautionary Suspension. A precautionary suspension is not a form of disciplinary action
