Raising the game...

SYFA's First Coach Education Experience with inspiresport

In February this year, 12 selected SYFA coaches travelled to Girona FC for a spectacular three-day Coach Education trip.

During their visit, the group observed elite training sessions, met with academy staff, and gained valuable insight into the club's coaching philosophy and player development approach.

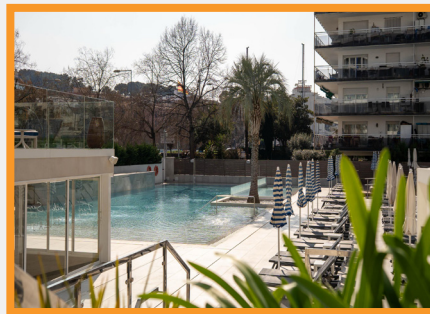

The experience provided fresh ideas, practical learning, and inspiration that will directly benefit the players back home.

Olivia McMahon, SYFA head of operations said "Having fully recovered from the enjoyment of our inspiresport trip to Girona FC, I can say wholeheartedly that it is an experience not to miss. The trip was expertly organised from start to finish, allowing a stress free, magnificent visit."

A huge thank you to Jed and the inspiresport team for their continued support and sponsorship of the trip, which continues to deliver invaluable benefits to everyone involved.
